Ebony Horsewomen Equipment Policy

As of September 2017, EHI will no longer provide helmets, boots and riding pants for students to borrow to participate in riding program activities.

Due to the safety of all participating students shared equipment may pose health concerns. We do this to ensure that every child has equipment that is used exclusively by him or herself.

All students are required to obtain their own equipment for participation in all EHI Programs. Students will not be allowed to participate in riding activities until they have proper equipment. Ebony Horsewomen has these items for sale at our store for discounted fees.

I _____ parent/ guardian of _____ (student name) understand that my child is required to have their own boots, helmet and riding pants to participate in any of the horse related activities. I also understand that my child cannot participate if they do not have the proper riding equipment.
